The Arrow is a fictional character, a superhero originally published by Centaur Publications. The character first appeared in 1938 in Funny Pages #21 (numbered vol. 2, #10; dated September 1938). After Centaur Publications went out of business, the Arrow, along with most other company properties, lapsed into public domain. The Arrow was briefly revived by Malibu Comics, appearing as part of their Protectors/Genesis imprint. He starred in the Protectors series and the Arrow one-shot. The character has been dormant after Marvel Comics acquired Malibu Comics, although some of his Golden Age adventures were reprinted by AC Comics. Today, the Arrow is mostly remembered for being the first American superhero to rely on archery as a primary gimmick. Enjoy his adventures in the new KINDLE COMIC FORMAT! And with the ZOOM mode for the dialogues: just double-TAP on the balloons, and your Kindle ( or any Tablet) will open a magnification window in order to make your reading experience more enjoyable and relaxing.
