

Kitchen Art: Educated Design

In today's economy where every dollar is precious, it is essential for consumers to have as much knowledge as possible about purchases they want to make. This book is a must read for anyone planning to remodel or design a new kitchen. Armed with an education in cabinet construction, countertop and storage choices, door style and finish options, you will be able to create the kitchen of your dreams and still come in on budget. Barbara Lappos has owned a successful kitchen design business since 2001 and has over twenty years design experience. As a mother of three and an avid cook, she also understands the needs of today's modern family.
